THANK YOU

We offer our sincere thanks to David Sanders for leading Rosh Hashonah Services, and to Honi, Akiva and Yinnon Sanders for assisting, along with Ephraim Fischbach, and Gerald Krockover.

Thanks to Sol Gartenhaus and Rolf Friedlaender for leading Friday night services.

Thanks to the Chosnek family who provided flowers in memory of their parents.

Thanks to Sam Harris and Scotty Rumpza who placed the white ark curtain and Torah covers.

Thanks to Sam Harris for his weekly notifications of Shabbat schedules.

Thanks to Harriet Diamond, with assistance from Gwen Slamovich and Sonya Garfinkel, for preparing the Sisterhood and the Sons of Abraham directories.

The Jewish Connection Book Group

The Jewish Connection Book Group will meet on Wednesday, October 25, 2:30 p.m. at the home of Rose Haberer, 129 E. Navajo St., West Lafayette.

This month's selection is And After the Fire, written by Lauren Belfer. This spellbinding novel spans centuries and continents to reveal the secret history of a long-lost musical masterpiece – one of the final cantatas by Johann Sebastian Bach – and the two women bound together by its troubled past.

As always, it is not necessary to have read this book. Everyone is welcome for this lively and friendly gathering.

For additional information, please contact Rose Haberer at 463-2772.

There are two corrections that should be made in the Sons of Abraham Directory:

1. The Aronson listing should read Arthur Aronson, not Arthur and Marge
2. Scotty Rumpza's phone number is 701-8258, not 701-8358

In case you didn't know:

The National Museum of American Jewish History, Philadelphia PA, launched an Interactive digital platform enabling Jewish families to explore their heritage.

It's called Re:collection and invites Jews to upload and curate media that helps tell their stories of their families, ancestors and themselves. Anyone who wishes to participate in Re:collection should go to: <http://recollection.nmajh.org>.

There is no charge to participate.

Community Stand Down to Help Homeless and Low Income
Veterans in Our Community

November is Homeless Awareness Month, so it is fitting that the Military Family Research Institute at Purdue University has organized a Stand Down to serve the needs of the Greater Lafayette area's homeless and low income veterans.

A Stand Down is a community event in which volunteers serve meals, distribute clothing, work at information tables, and provide companionship to homeless veterans. In support of this Stand Down, the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) General de Lafayette Chapter is collecting new socks and new underwear. Donated items may be placed in the drop box in the Gathering Space at Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church, Sons of Abraham Synagogue, Mike Raisor Ford/Mazda GMC Cadillac Audi Mercedes and Used Car Dealerships, and the West Lafayette Public Library starting October 1 through November 1. There will also be a drop box Saturday, October 14 at the Lafayette Farmers Market at the Children of the American Revolution stand.

All collected items will be distributed by the DAR at the Stand Down at the Tippecanoe County Fairgrounds on Saturday, November 4, from 9 am-2pm. Thank you for helping those who served our country.

Donations can be left in the Shul lobby or may be given directly to Gwen Slamovich. Please call Gwen at 838-8365 for more information or to arrange a drop-off.

Yes, you can honor someone with a new leaf on the Tree of Life in the Shul. Simply call Jo Gartenhaus at 765-464-1209 to learn how.

To have a Happy Day Card or a Memorial Card sent in your name, please contact Esther Chosnek by e-mail at erc@wolfelt.com. She will promptly send your card for a minimum donation of only $5.00. You need only contact Esther, then send your check, made payable to Sisterhood Sons of Abraham to Sisterhood Treasurer, Sonya Garfinkel, 2229 Carberry Dr., West Lafayette, IN 47906.
