The Jewish Connection

The Jewish Connection is a community-wide book discussion group that meets monthly.

The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, September 21 at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Debby Sherman, 2817 Bentbrook Lane, West Lafayette.

The book for September is The Faith Club: a Muslim, a Christian, a Jew – Three Women Search for Understanding, by Ranya Idliby, Suzanne Oliver and Priscilla Warner. This collaborative effort weaves the story of three women, their three religions and their urgent quest to understand one another.

It is not necessary to have read the book to attend. For additional information, please call Rose Haberer at 463-2772 or Debby Sherman at 583-2984.

Mazal tov to Tamara and Seth Schwartz on the birth of their daughter.

Add your story to those of Hoosier Jews as we celebrate Indiana's Bicentennial 1816 – 2016

Each voice, each story is important in telling the 200-year story of the Jewish community in Indiana.

To celebrate, the Indiana Jewish Historical Society, in conjunction with Jewish communities state-wide, is creating a Bicentennial Snapshot in Time for future generations.

The Indiana Jewish Historical Society is celebrating Indiana's Bicentennial with a Snapshot in Time, sharing the story of Hoosier Jews from 1816 to today.

We invite your organization and community – especially the youth of your community – to be a part of this once in a lifetime event celebrating our part of the Indiana story. The collected archives will be housed at the Eugene and Marilyn Glick Indiana History Center.

Photographs, books, digital and electronic medium – anything you would like to include – sharing your individual, family, organization, and community story will be accepted. For our youth, this is their opportunity to discover their roots and be a part! This is a great way for one family to tell the story of how they came to Indiana and what they are doing here.

Please share your story so that future generation will understand the role and significance our Jewish community has had in Indiana.

To participate or receive more information, please contact Mark Roger at mroger@frannet.com or the Indiana Jewish Historical Society at Indiana.jhs@frontier.com.

The Jewish Post & Opinion

The Jewish Post & Opinion Newspaper (1933-present) is one of the first and only publications to offer insight into the lives of the national and local Jewish communities. Gabriel Murrel Cohen was the founder, editor and publisher of newspaper. “His basic desire was to help people find the truth in their own way. He did not preach to people but gave them a sense of the adventure of the incredible diversity of ideas around which people engage. Rather than not publishing opinions of which he strongly disagreed, he would include them but write an editorial explaining his opposing view.”

This unique publication provides historical insight into such events as WWII from a strictly Jewish perspective that is not readily accessible, especially on the Internet. Another example of news unlikely to be covered anywhere else is the founding of the American Jewish Press Association by Cohen in Indianapolis in 1944. Digitizing this collection allows access to an audience that presently relies on the current publisher to fill research requests. Requests primarily come from researchers in the United States who are seeking information about a specific Jewish organization, or from researchers who want information about an ancestor who lived in Indiana during the years the newspaper was published.

As the Bicentennial of Indiana in 2016 quickly approaches, a Jewish Post & Opinion digital collection will represent a piece of Indiana history that has been collected from 1933-present and represents the voice the Indiana Jewish Community.
